DO YOUR EMPLOYEES UNDERSTAND YOUR COMMUNICATION?

We always talk about how important it is to communicate with your workers, but do your workers always understand your communication?

HEALTH AND SAFETY: A SHARED RESPONSIBILITY

No organization can expect sustainable results in occupational injuries prevention if health and safety is a one-person responsibility only. Leadership, managers and employees must mobilize around health and safety. In this spirit, responsibilities must be shared, so that every member of the organization contributes to the success of the prevention process.

TECH TALK: TAKE OUT THE OLD, BRING IN THE NEW!

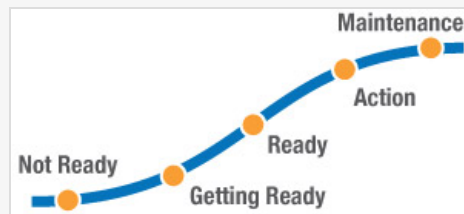

With Christmas just passing some of us have received new technology as gifts; but, what do we do with the old technology? Are you a collector and still use different versions? Does it sit on a shelf collecting dust? Most of us have some form of technology just lying around not being used, but what can we do with it?
