ARE YOU A LEADER, OR A SAFETY LEADER?

A big mistake that any senior manager can make is to assume that someone else has got safety under control.

WSIB CAMPAIGN: NOISE INDUCED HEARING LOSS

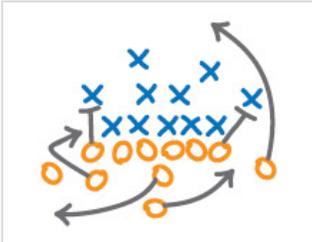

To help promote health and safety in Ontario workplaces, WSIB has launched a public awareness campaign about Noise Induced Hearing Loss (NIHL).

Noise Induced Hearing Loss is a condition that is entirely preventable. That's why we think it's important to encourage people to make better decisions regarding their exposure to noise at work. And hopefully protect their hearing for life.

Please visit toneitdown.ca to see how your hearing compares to the average person and obtain information about the risk of NIHL.

SUPERVISOR TO COACH

Are you a foreman, a supervisor, a coach? Regardless of your job title, you are responsible for a team. If you have been a supervisor for several years, you are likely to have been assigned this position for your technical skills. But times have changed. What you are asked to do today is to motivate and encourage your troops, develop and maintain a good working climate in the team, and possess communicative skills. You need to know how to use the knowledge and skills of each member of your team.

TECH TALK: GALAXY NOTE 7

The new Galaxy Note 7 had a short run of life from the electronic giant company Samsung. The launch was a very rocky start for the phone followed up by issues that caused the phone to become volatile and explode. The phone exploding not only destroys itself but the property of the owner of the phone. Due to this issue the phone is now no longer being manufactured and sold to the public, and it is now prohibited to bring on board an aircraft.

WELLNESS TALK: TAKE RESPONSIBILITY FOR YOUR OWN HEALTH - NOBODY ELSE WILL!

As we juggle our many different roles such as parent, spouse, friend, co-worker, supervisor etc., we often lose sight of our most important role which is to be our own advocate.

We are all responsible for our own health, wellness, and lifestyle choices. Now is the time! Stop coming up with excuses and take that next step to making sure you are happy and healthy in 2017.
